

CENTRAL CRIMINAL COURT,
OLD BAILEY.

FRIDAY, MARCH 3, 1843.

THE QUEEN against DANIEL MC NAUGHTON, for the wilful
Murder of MR. EDWARD DRUMMOND.

Before LORD CHIEF JUSTICE TINDAL, MR. JUSTICE WILLIAMS, and MR. JUSTICE COLERIDGE.

The following Gentlemen were sworn of the Jury :—

Mr. William Routledge,
William Jewett Harris,
Thomas Eames,
Thomas Gardner,
Thomas Innocent,
George Henry Galloway,

Mr. Richard Falcon,
William Hay,
Henry Wood,
Robert Oust,
William White,
Thomas Penrose Williams.

Counsel for the Prosecution :

The Solicitor-General, (Sir William Webb Follett,)
Mr. Adolphus,
Mr. Waddington,
Mr. Russell Gurney,
Solicitor—Mr. Maule, of the Treasury.

Counsel for the Prisoner :

Mr. Cockburn, Q. C.
Mr. Clarkson,
Mr. Bodkin,
Mr. Monteith.

Solicitor—Mr. W. C. Humphries.

The prisoner, on being placed at the bar, was arraigned on the indictment, and also upon the Coroner's inquisition, to both of which he pleaded—"Not Guilty."* He was then given in charge to the Jury.

* The true bill had been found at the previous session of the Central Criminal Court, when on motion the trial was postponed to this session. For the proceedings hereon, including the indictment at length, vide Appendix.